Stallion owner requirements _____

Stallion owners will be notified of delinquent payments; at which time, the breeder's certificate will be mailed to the All American Futurity Secretary for distribution. Stallion owners who donate services will have the privilege of participating in the A.A.A. All American Futurity, subject to the rules and conditions, along with the purchasers of the stallion fees. The Stallion Owner will have the option of paying the balance of any unpaid fee(s) of his stallion(s) to maintain eligibility in the auction. The stallion owner will then have two eligible entries.

Mare Owners:

The mare owner agrees to purchase the above breeding service from the A.A.A. All American Futurity Stallion Auction.

The purchase price of $ _____ will be paid to the A.A.A. Appaloosa Assoc. in the following manner:

20% payment down, payment _____ Cash or Check# _____ at the time of Auction with 10 equal payments of _____ DUE ON THE 20TH OF EACH MONTH, starting December.

At the time of purchase, the mare's owner will sign all copies of the agreement—one will be retained by the mare's owner, one by the A.A.A. All American Stallion Auction secretary, and one will be sent to the stallion owner as proof of who purchased the stallion's service.

It is the mare owner's responsibility to have verified transported semen agreements before the auction. Stallion fee must be paid in full and will be credited to a purchase of a stallion fee that year or the following year. Credit will only be issued in the event of the following: death of a stallion, stallion being unserviceable (veterinarian statement required), stallion owner, manager or lessee refusing to honor contract for any reason, or the stallion is moved to an undesirable location after the Auction. All stallion fees and contracts purchased must be paid up and in good standing on all A.A.A. American Stallion Auction contracts to maintain eligibility to show in resulting futurities. The rule sheets are available from the A.A.A. Futurity Secretary regarding the stallion auction and futurity.
